

2019 Hall of Fame

Applications are now being accepted for the 2019 Santa Fe College Hall of Fame.

The Santa Fe College Hall of Fame is the highest honor bestowed upon Santa Fe students. The recognition celebrates those students who have demonstrated outstanding service to the college and community, leadership in organizations, and academic achievement. The core values of Santa Fe College and highest standards of personal character are required by each student. The Hall of Fame is limited to 1/10 of 1% of the current enrollment and the selection is determined each spring semester.

Successful applicants must have demonstrated success in the classroom and have shown a commitment to better the College and the community. Applicants must:

- 1) earn a minimum cumulative 3.00 SF GPA;
- 2) demonstrate specific examples of service to the college;
- 3) demonstrate service to the community.

Hall of Fame inductees must be graduating from Santa Fe College in either spring or fall of 2019.

Applications may be found in Student Life (S-Lobby) and online at <http://www.sfcollege.edu/studentlife/HallofFame>.

Completed applications and the accompanying paperwork are due to the Front Desk in Student Life (S-Lobby) by 4:00 PM on Friday, March 1, 2019.

Questions about the selection process should be directed to Doug Bagby, Associate Director for Student Life, at doug.bagby@sfcollege.edu or 352-381-3733.
