

HALL OF FAME

Applications are now being accepted for the 2021 Santa Fe College Hall of Fame.

The Santa Fe College Hall of Fame is the highest honor bestowed upon Santa Fe College students. The recognition celebrates those students who have demonstrated outstanding service to the college and community, leadership in organizations, and academic achievement. The core values of Santa Fe College and highest standards of personal character are required by each student. The Hall of Fame is limited to 1/10 of 1% of the current enrollment and the selection is determined each spring semester.

Successful applicants must have demonstrated success in the classroom and have shown a commitment to better Santa Fe College and the community.

Applicants must:

- 1) earn a minimum cumulative 3.00 SF GPA;
- 2) demonstrate specific examples of service to the college;
- 3) demonstrate service to the community during your time at SF.

Hall of Fame inductees must be graduating from Santa Fe College in the spring, summer, or fall semesters of 2021.

Applications may be found in Student Life (S-Lobby) and online at <http://www.sfcollege.edu/student/HallofFame> .

Due: Monday, March 15, 2021, 4:00 p.m.: Completed applications and the accompanying documents are due to the Front Desk in Student Life (S-Lobby) or may be emailed to Doug Bagby at doug.bagby@sfcollege.edu.

Questions about the process should be directed to Doug Bagby, Associate Director for Student Life, at doug.bagby@sfcollege.edu.
